Approved For Release 2004/07/29 : CIA-RDP80-00810A003600490009-0

	Czechoslovakia
COUNTRY.	REPORT NO. 25X1
TOPIC	1. Czech Troops in Horazdovice.
n elizar dilmako arriadorrea, ja i kaja al ma kada riiligarde alta, aginga n ya asalad	2. Troops in Plzen and Unit of the "Interior Guard" in the Rizen Lenin-Plan
EVALUATION	25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1
DATE OF CON	TENTprior to August 1953
DATE OBTAINE	22 7 1054
REFERENCES_
	2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)
REMARKS
	THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY O
25X1 1 25X1	Frior to August 1953, an AAA unit was quartered in the former convent which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdovice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light
1.	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdovice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 track-towed light AA guns on two pheumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit were red-bordered black spaulets. In June 1953, an
25X1	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdovice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light AA guns on two pheumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit were red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which
25X1 25X1	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdovice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light AA guns on two pneumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit wore red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot
25X1	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdovice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light AA guns on two pheumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit were red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot on the northern bank of the Otava River and about 500 meters south
25X1 25X1	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdovice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light AA guns on two pneumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit were red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot on the northern bank of the Otava River and about 500 meters south of the Horazdovice railroad station, which included three wooden buildings and the storage area for wooden boats, was still guarded.
25X1 25X1 	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdovice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light AA guns on two pheumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit were red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot on the northern bank of the Otava River and about 500 meters south of the Horazdovice railroad station, which included three wooden buildings and the storage area for wooden boats, was still guarded.  Prior to August 1953, no other military units were identified in Horazdovice.
25X1 25X1 ————————————————————————————————————	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdotice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light AA guns on two pheumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit were red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot on the northern bank of the Otava River and about 500 meters south of the Horazdovice railroad station, which included three wooden buildings and the storage area for wooden boats, was still guarded.  Prior to August 1953, no other military units were identified in Horazdovice.  That after 1951 FTP soldiers did construction work in the wooded area, about 4 km northeast of Horozdovice and around Hill 472, which was referred to as the Haj area. Shipments of
25X1 25X1 ————————————————————————————————————	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdotice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light AA guns on two pheumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit were red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot on the northern bank of the Otava River and about 500 meters south of the Horazdovice railroad station, which included three wooden buildings and the storage area for wooden boats, was still guarded.  Prior to August 1953, no other military units were identified in Horazdovice.  That after 1951 PTP soldiers did construction work in the wooded area, about 4 km northeast of Horozdovice and around Hill 472, which was referred to as the Haj area. Shipments of materials such as bricks, lime, cement and timber from the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station continued up to late 1952. The area was marked with
25X1 25X1 ————————————————————————————————————	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdotice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light AA guns on two pheumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit were red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot on the northern bank of the Otava River and about 500 meters south of the Horazdovice railroad station, which included three wooden buildings and the storage area for wooden boats, was still guarded.  Prior to August 1953, no other military units were identified in Horazdovice.  That after 1951 FTP soldiers did construction work in the wooded area, about 4 km northeast of Horozdovice and around Hill 472, which was referred to as the Haj area. Shipments of materials such as bricks, lime, cement and timber from the Horazdovice-
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 1 25X1 1 25X1	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdovice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light AA guns on two pneumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which scurce believed were German-made 20-rm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit were red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot on the northern bank of the Otava River and about 500 meters south of the Horazdovice railroad station, which included three wooden buildings and the storage area for wooden boats, was still guarded.  Prior to August 1953, no other military units were identified in Horazdovice.  That after 1951 PTP soldiers did construction work in the wooded area, about 4 km northeast of Horozdovice and around Hill 472, which was referred to as the Haj area. Shipments of materials such as bricks, lime, cement and timber from the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station continued up to late 1952. The area was marked with warning boards. After early 1953, trucks were observed entering this woods. Construction work was apparently completed at this time.  Prior to mid-August 1953, infantrymen were quartered in the former 35th
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 1 25X1 1 25X1 25X1	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdovice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light. AA guns on two pheumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-rm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit wore red-bordered black spaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot on the northern bank of the Otava River and about 500 meters south of the Horazdovice railroad station, which included three wooden buildings and the storage area for wooden boats, was still guarded.  Prior to August 1953, no other military units were identified in Horazdovice.  That after 1951 PTP soldiers did construction work in the wooded area, about 4 km northeast of Horozdovice and around Hill 472, which was referred to as the Haj area. Shipments of materials such as bricks, lime, cement and timber from the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station continued up to late 1952. The area was marked with warning boards. After early 1953, trucks were observed entering this woods. Construction work was apparently completed at this time.  Prior to mid-August 1953, infantrymen were quartered in the former 35th Infantry Earracks and the Na Slovanech Barracks in the Flzen (N 50/L 04) post area.
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 1 25X1 25X1 25X1	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdotice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 track-towed light AA guns on two pheumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit wore red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot on the northern bank of the Otava River and about 500 meters south of the Horazdovice railroad station, which included three wooden buildings and the storage area for wooden boats, was still guarded.  Prior to August 1953, no other military units were identified in Horazdovice.  That after 1951 PTP soldiers did construction work in the wooded area, about 4 km northeast of Horozdovice and around Hill 472, which was referred to as the Haj area. Shipments of materials such as bricks, line, cement and timber from the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station continued up to late 1952. The area was marked with warning boards. After early 1953, trucks were observed entering this woods. Construction work was apparently completed at this time.  Prior to mid-August 1953, infantrymen were quartered in the former 35th Infantry Earracks and the Ns Slovanech Barracks in the Plzen (N 50/L 04) post area.  The Na Slovanech Barracks in the Plzen (N 50/L 04) post area.  The Na Slovanech Barracks also quartered an AAA unit. Artillerymen wearing red-bordered black epaulets and numerous soldiers wearing red-bordered brown epaulets and quartered in unidentified
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 1 25X1 1 25X1 25X1	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdovice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-toxed light AA guns on two phermatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit were red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot on the northern bank of the Otava River and about 500 meters south of the Horazdovice railroad station, which included three wooden buildings and the storage area for wooden boats, was still guarded.  Prior to August 1953, no other military units were identified in Horazdovice.  That after 1951 FTP soldiers did construction work in the wooded area, about 4 km northeast of Horozdovice and around Hill 472, which was referred to as the Haj area. Shipments of materials such as bricks, lime, cement and timber from the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station continued up to late 1952. The area was marked with warning boards. After early 1953, trucks were observed entering this woods. Construction work was apparently completed at this time.  Prior to mid-August 1953, infantrymen were quartered in the former 35th Infantry Earracks and the Na Slovanech Barracks in the Plzen (N 50/L 04) post area.  The Na Slovanech Barracks and numerous
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1	which was located on the northeastern perimeter of Horazdovice (N 50/Q 39), directly northwest of the railroad station and was the only installation in the post area serving as military billets. About 16 truck-towed light AA guns on two pneumatic-tire wheels without limbers, which source believed were German-made 20-mm guns, left the installation for practices. The soldiers of the unit were red-bordered black epaulets. In June 1953, an engineer unit of about two companies quartered in this installation entrained at the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station. The train, which included 25 cars, was also loaded with about 15 wooden boats, about 3 meters long, and beams. During the absence of the unit the engineer depot on the northern bank of the Otava River and about 500 meters south of the Horazdovice railroad station, which included three wooden buildings and the storage area for wooden boats, was still guarded.  Prior to August 1953, no other military units were identified in Horazdovice.  That after 1951 FTF soldiers did construction work in the wooded area, about 4 km northeast of Horozdovice and around Hill 472, which was referred to as the Haj area. Shipments of materials such as bricks, line, cement and timber from the Horazdovice-Babin railroad station continued up to late 1952. The area was marked with warning boards. After early 1953, trucks were observed entering this woods. Construction work was apparently completed at this time.  Prior to mid-August 1953, infantrymen were quartered in the former 35th Infantry Earracks and the Na Slovanech Barracks in the Plzen (N 50/L 04) post area.  The Na Slovanech Barracks also quartered an AAA unit. Artillerymen wearing red-bordered black epaulets and numerous soldiers wearing red-bordered brown epaulets and quartered in unidentified billets were frequently seen in the city area.

CONFIDENTIAL 25X1

... 🤰 👊

25X1

25X1 Corrent. The AAA battalion of the 2d litz Rifle Div is confirmed in Horazdovice prior to August 1953. Other units stationed at the post are still unidentified. Deserter Vondra stated that a rocket launcher unit was stationed there in April 1952, while Deserter Jirges continued an engineer unit in September 1952. The unit protably is the engineer battalion of the 2d Mtz Rifle Div bitherto carried in Susice.

25X1 Comment. Previous information indicated that infantrymen were quartered in the 35th Infantry Barracks, while the Na Blovamech Farracks quartered one artillery unit, one AAA unit and one engineer unit and the Na Borech Barracks was occurred by an AAA unit. Esserter Koudelks stated that the tank SP regiment of the 11th Div was stationed at Flzen in May 1952. The occupation of the barracks installations may have changed. It is believed that besides other units the 11th Inf Regt, the 155th AAA Regt and the tank SP regiment of the 11th Div are stationed at Flzen.

CONFIDENTIAL